Neuzil to Hold February Government and You Listening Posts

(IOWA CITY IA) Terrence Neuzil, member of the Johnson County Board of Supervisors, will hold his "Government and You" Listening Posts in February. The listening posts last one hour and provide residents an opportunity to discuss local, state and national government issues in an informal setting. Each month during the listening posts, citizens also can learn and discuss a hot and emerging issue that Johnson County is facing. In February, the Hot Topics Discussion will be on the Fiscal Year 2009 County Budget and process. Currently, the Board of Supervisors is developing the budget that will be submitted to the State of Iowa in March and implemented beginning in July, 2009. Those interested in learning about government expenditures and the complexities of the different funding streams are encouraged to attend.
